

Echo Healthcare

INNOVATION SIMULATION EDUCATION

Job Title: Casting, General Laborer

Department: Garage/Casting/Molds

Location: Sarasota, FL

Position Type: Full Time, Non-Exempt

About the Role: The casting department is responsible for casting foam, silicone and plastic molds and shaping and mounting forms. This position will also be cross trained in various departments to gain overall working knowledge in operations.

Responsibilities: A member of the casting department must be organized, possess excellent time management skills, methodical and precise. As a member of the casting department and product line assigned, they must be able to work well with others within their area, as well as part of a broader team. They will follow department procedures, and work toward mastering skills obtained through on-the-job training.

- Detail oriented
- Excellent organizational and time management skills
- Basic hand tool abilities
- Ability to stand or walking for prolonged periods
- Casting foam, silicone, and plastic molds
- Shaping and mounting forms
- Able to lift up to 50lbs
- Must take pride in work and ensure that work station is kept neat and free from spills and debris at all times
- Understand and follow safety requirements associated with the position
- Cross train with other departments within operations
- Bilingual a plus
- Other projects and duties as assigned

Candidate Requirements:

- High School diploma or equivalent

Salary/Benefits: We offer competitive wages, clean, safe, climate controlled and positive work environment with great benefits and advancement opportunities.

- Health
- Dental
- Vision
- Paid time off, sick pay and company holidays

Starting pay: $16.00/hr